

The Power of Money

is exemplified every day. The chance to make a good real estate buy—the chance to get into business—the chance to furnish a partner's capital—but you can't avail yourself of any of the opportunities because you haven't saved up any money.

Begin to save TODAY!

GRANITE CITY SAVINGS BANK

Ashland, Oregon

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Mrs. W. W. Dann and two children left Saturday for an extended visit at Minneapolis, Minn., and Sault Ste. Marie, Mich. Mr. Dann will follow in a few weeks.

Mrs. F. B. Tracy left last week for a six weeks' visit at the home of her parents in Princeton, Ind.

Cliff Payne makes step-ladders.

A. H. Tracy, who recently purchased the Davis residence on Rock street, is making a great improvement in the appearance of the place. A new woodshed is among the improvements and a general "sprucing up" of the place is apparent.

J. P. Dodge returned Saturday night from a four days' business trip to Roseburg.

An evening of pleasure tonight at the Chautauqua building.

J. W. Beckwith of New York city, by previous occupation a druggist, is in Ashland on a tour of investigation preparatory to selecting a location in Pacific coast territory, preferring to enter another line of business.

O. H. Johnson and family were breakfast visitors Sunday, going down in his motor car.

Join Fuller's pressing club. We look after your clothes.

Miss Madge Putnam left last Thursday for Everett, Wash., to accept a position with a large millinery emporium. En route she stops at Portland to visit her grandmother. At Everett Miss Putnam will stay with her aunt.

Norman Ashcraft left this morning for Central Point, where he will teach one of the grades in the Central Point schools the coming year.

Ashland-Klamath Exchange will buy all your empty sacks.

H. E. McWilliams, a son of Mr. and Mrs. F. G. McWilliams of this city, who is an express messenger running for the Wells-Fargo company between Tacoma and Deer Lodge, Mont., arrived home this forenoon for a brief visit with his parents.

Mine Host Connors of the Hotel Oregon is confined to his bed by illness. His many friends hope for his speedy recovery.

New hair goods and novelties in Madame Dilhan's Millinery Store.

Miss Rosamond Welch of Telluride, Colo., arrived in Ashland on the 5th inst. to accept a position in the high school of this city, and upon her arrival here renewed former acquaintances in the family of T. W. Acklin.

Teddy Provost has accepted a position in Pracht's confectionery store, and his pleasant countenance is now seen behind the counter there.

We are the leading tailors in the city. We satisfy. Fuller's, 81 Oak street.

H. A. Autry is building a nice modern, six-room bungalow, 38 by 28 feet, on the corner of Main and Morton streets.

AMERICAN BANKERS ASSOCIATION TRAVELERS' CHEQUES

The Citizens Banking and Trust Co.

issues "A. B. A." Cheques and recommends them to tourists. The safest and most convenient travel funds.

Hotels all over the world are glad to cash them for guests. Railways, steamship lines, and the best shops generally, accept them.

Homer Elhart, who has been clerking for W. M. Poley for some time, left this morning for Caldwell, Idaho, where his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Elhart, formerly of this city, now reside. Mr. Elhart will be absent about two weeks.

Gerald Wenner left a few days ago for a brief visit with friends in Portland.

Get your school books and supplies at the East Side Pharmacy.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Tozer and daughter Iva left last week for California, where Mr. Tozer will investigate conditions with the intent of remaining permanently. Their first stop will be made in the vicinity of Sacramento.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Cooper, residing near the normal, are the happy parents of a fine new daughter who arrived Thursday, September 5.

No extra charge for Norfolk style suits at Fuller's. Others greatly reduced.

Irving E. Vining, who has made an extended study of child life, will address the Teacher Association next Friday evening at their social at the West Side school. All parents of West Side pupils cordially invited to attend.

Robert Casey and the three Triplett brothers left this morning for a few days' hunting in the neighborhood of Mt. Ashland.

The great American drama, "The Money King," in four acts at Chautauqua building tonight.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Wilshire of 87 Granite street returned home on No. 15 Sunday from Lake county. While there Mr. Wilshire disposed of his property in Lake county and will make Ashland his home in the future.

Mrs. E. C. Richards returned Saturday from a visit with friends at Gold Hill.

Save money. Buy your suits and overcoats at Fuller's, 81 Oak street.

J. D. Allman and wife and two sons and two daughters arrived Friday from Rensselaer, Ind. Mr. Allman recently purchased the Carpenter ranch near the Bellview school and they are coming to make Ashland their future home.

J. Wendell Wright of Roseburg arrived this forenoon to visit his brother, J. N. Wright, ticket agent of the Southern Pacific railway in this city.

A fine entertainment at the Chautauqua building this evening.

The Misses Jennie Elliott and Nellie Anderson, who came from Illinois to Oregon some time since and who have been residents of this vicinity for over a year, left last Thursday for southern California, intending to remain there indefinitely, to the regret of a host of friends, especially among the younger element of the community.

Jack Barnhouse returned Saturday evening from Eugene, where he has been working in a meat market. He reports Eugene as very lively, but is uncertain whether or not he will return there.

For correct millinery at the right prices, Madame Dilhan's millinery Store.

Mrs. Mary Palmer, an old resident of Ashland, returned Wednesday from San Diego, Cal., where she has been residing with her granddaughter, Mrs. William Virgin. Mrs. Virgin accompanied Mrs. Palmer and will make a home for her here during the rest of her days. They are residing at the Owens home, 166 North Main street, where they will be glad to meet old friends.

Howard Jeter, who has been spending the summer at Shake, returned Friday so as to be present for the opening of school this morning.

There will be services at the Christian church every evening this week, conducted by Rev. Mr. Teel, pastor of the church at Grants Pass.

J. C. Stanley, superintendent of the Bailey Gulch mine, near Galice, Josephine county, who has been spending some time with his family in this city, left this morning for Galice. At Merlin he will meet the secretary of the company, who comes from Philadelphia to look the property over, and probably resume work in the mine, which has been shut down for several months.

J. M. Mashburn of Little Shasta, formerly a well-known Ashland business man, left for his home yesterday after a sojourn of nearly two weeks in this city looking after his real estate interests here.

Fire, fire, fire. It may be you next. Get insured. See Cliff Payne—he will save you about 40 per cent on the cost of your fire insurance.

Mrs. H. E. Duncan and Will Weeden of Klamath Falls are visiting at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Weeden, who reside on the Scenic Drive. They were called here on account of an accident to Mr. Weeden, who fell from an apple tree last week, striking on his shoulder and breaking several ribs. His condition was critical for a time, but he is now much improved.

A. E. Jordan left Saturday night for Yreka, Cal., whence he and a party of Yreka friends will take to the hills for a ten days' hunting trip.

You can save at least $3.00 on your suit or overcoat at Fuller's, 81 Oak street.

Mrs. Blanch Culy and Mrs. T. M. Lynch went to Portland last week, the former to visit her sister and the latter to visit the orphan asylum. They returned Saturday, Mrs. Lynch bringing with her a three months' old baby boy which Mr. and Mrs. Lynch will adopt. The little lad is fortunate in securing so good a home and the Tidings joins many friends in hoping that he may be a source of much comfort and joy to his foster parents.

Berlin, the ladies' tailor, will be in Ashland September 11 and 12. Every lady who wishes to have beautiful hand-made suits by expert men tailors should call at the Hotel Oregon, September 11 and 12.

ROUGH NECK SWEATERS.

$2.49, $3.50, $5.00.

The season's favorite style. Heavy weights, in white, gray, cardinal and maroon.

NEW SILKS.

24-inch Poplin, 15 shades ..... 65c
40-inch Crepe de Chine ..... $1.50
40-inch Crepe Meteor, one of the most handsome creations on the market for evening gowns ..... $1.75
Our $3.00 Waist Lengths are sold most everywhere for $3.75.

NEW DRESS TRIMMINGS.

We have many new Trimming Braids, Overlaces, Bandings, Flouncings, etc. A touch of the proper trimmings is the making of a dress. Just ask the dressmakers where to find the proper trimmings. They know.

NEW WAISTS AND SHIRTS.

Unusually attractive are the new styles. The perfectly plain shirts of cotton, linen or flannel, the dainty embroidered front shirts and the new silk waists.

MAKE YOUR HATS.

Those jaunty little hats can be made to match your coat. We have the patterns and our heavy materials in wool, corduroy and velvets supply the material.

The October number of Pictorial Review will be a big fall fashion number. Be sure to get it. On sale about September 17 at news stands or at our store.

Derby Gloves Eskay Gloves Wunderhose Puritan Underwear American Lady Corsets

A. F. Hunt, a former well-known Ashland stock dealer, but now of Portland, arrived in the city Sunday night accompanied by Mrs. Hunt. They were en route from Ft. Klamath, where Mr. Hunt had purchased eight cars of cattle which he is shipping to Portland. They spent last night at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Will Dodge, and resumed their journey to Portland this morning, accompanied by D. L. Minkler, who will enjoy some duck shooting on the Columbia with Mr. Hunt.

SPINELLA CORSETS.—Boned with the most flexible and indestructible corset boning, guaranteed not to break in regular corset wear. Phone 263-R. Residence, 369 Hargadine.

H. G. Enders returned Friday forenoon from an extended trip through the markets of the east, where he went to select a stock of ladies' suits and cloaks; dry goods and notions for the department store of H. G. Enders & Son. The new departments will be opened in about two weeks.

When you have shoes to repair take them to the Ashland Electric Shoe, 343 East Main street. Lyman & Sons, proprietors. The best of work. Try them.

Emil R. Brophy has gone to Lodi, Cal., where he will visit an uncle for some time. Mrs. Brophy is at present visiting relatives in Medford. The family contemplates making their future home in the southern state, it is reported.

Your Property Insured

The moment you allow your fire insurance to run out is the time a fire generally occurs. Many a man has been made poor by allowing his policy to lapse. Don't let this happen to you. If you don't carry fire insurance, or feel the need of more protection, see

BILLINGS AGENCY

41 E. Main St. Phone 211-J.

BANK STATEMENT

No. 67.

Report of the condition of the Citizens' Banking and Trust Company, at Ashland, in the state of Oregon, at the close of business September 4, 1912:

RESOURCES.
Loans and discounts, secured and unsecured	$131,295.46
Overdrafts, secured and unsecured	421.20
Bonds and warrants	2,787.51
Banking house	22,518.97
Furniture and fixtures	6,232.72
Due from approved reserve banks	66,983.35
Checks and other cash items	1,018.98
Cash on hand	16,280.15
Total	$247,538.34

LIABILITIES.
Capital stock paid in	$ 50,000.00
Surplus fund	5,000.00
Undivided profits, less expenses and taxes paid	1,264.27
Due to banks and bankers	8,260.54
Individual deposits subject to check	139,010.32
Demand certificates of deposit	3,782.17
Cashier checks outstanding	25.00
Time certificates of deposit	1,100.00
Savings deposits	39,096.04
Total	$247,538.34

State of Oregon, county of Jackson, ss.
I, H. F. Pohland, President of the above named bank, do solemnly swear that the above statement is true to the best of my knowledge and belief.
H. F. POHLAND, President.
Subscribed and sworn to before me this 7th day of September, 1912.
G. H. YEO, Notary Public.
Correct—Attest:
E. B. BARRON,
DON B. SMITH,
C. B. LAMBKIN,
Directors.

Noted Temperance Advocate Dying.
Los Angeles, Sept. 3.—William J. Murphy, noted temperance lecturer and successor to his father, Francis J. Murphy, a temperance advocate of international fame, is dying at his home in this city. When Francis J. Murphy died his work was taken up by his son.

If it is Tidings work it is the best.

SEPTEMBER OFFERS

Advance Fall Styles at McGee's

Although we are now showing "Advance Fall Styles" they are styles which will prevail through this entire Fall and Winter season. You can buy now and use a long time. You may know the style is correct when you buy from us. Know also that the quality is high; know that the price is low. We are proud to be known as a "reliable store." Our success is proof of our deserving this reputation.

Magnificent Showing of New Dress Goods

Without doubt we have one of the largest and finest assortments of dress goods ever displayed in a southern Oregon store. Always in the lead with the new things, this season's assortment of 50 to 58-inch dress goods far surpasses in quality and variety any former showing. Serges, diagonals, tweeds, mackinaws, chinchillas, cloakings and other suitings from 89c to $3.25 per yard.

Medium and Dark Navy Serge, 50 inches wide, good firm quality and plain colors in 56-inch heavy suiting, 89c.
Other Serges 49c, 60c, $1.00, $1.25, $1.50 and $1.75.
"Oregon Made" Suitings, 56 to 58 inches. You know the quality, but you must see to know the beauty of the new patterns at $1.50 to $2.00.

Chinchillas, Mackinaws and Wide Diagonals for coats, blazers, Norfolk, hats, etc., $2.00 to $3.25.
These goods are not expensive when you consider how little it takes for a garment and the service and satisfaction you get. Two lengths make a skirt or coat; 3 1/2 yards a suit; one length for boys' knickerbockers.

September Coat and Suit Sale

As announced last week, we have cut the prices on every new garment. We are taking no chances on this season's business, but will endeavor in two months selling to make a complete clearing of these garments.

32-inch Blue Serge Suit, satin lining, five button, splendidly built and a good serge, now $15.00.
$18.50 Suits	$16.50
$22.50 Suits	$18.75
$25.00 Suits	$22.00
$27.50 Suits	$23.50
$32.50 Suits	$27.50

LA VOGUE COATS ARRIVE.
Price is not the only consideration in the buying of a garment. But when the price of these garments is put on a level with the price of ordinary garments you are getting your money's worth.
Ladies' Coats $8.85 to $30.00.
Children's, Misses' and Junior Coats reduced.

J. Hart

PHONE 450-R

Will carry passengers to all Rogue river or Applegate points for 1 1/2 cents per mile, mileage both ways. To Klamath Falls or points beyond, 20 cents per mile and $1 per hour for waiting. Four passengers the limit.

Planforte and Theoretic Branches

TAUGHT BY
MARY E. YOUNG
Thorough and systematic instruction. First year class work free. 124 Nob Hill street.

Exclusive Lines

Underwear

For Ladies, Misses and Children

The Forest Mills Underwear is one of the BEST makes sold in America.

At the head of the ladies' and children's department at the Forest Knitting Mills is a lady foreman, and the patterns for every garment are fitted on live models. That's why Forest Mills Underwear fit people and give that lasting satisfaction to the wearer. We sell these goods right here in Ashland at the eastern retail prices and carry a complete line to choose from. All of the new fall and winter weights now ready. Separate garments and union suits.

5 Per Cent Cash Discount on Everything

MINKLER'S CLOAK AND SUIT HOUSE

ASHLAND, OREGON.